

ESSEX HOUSE

New York

Essex House New York

is centrally located...and is conveniently near railroad terminals, local transportation lines, steamship piers, theatre, shopping and business districts.

160 CENTRAL PARK SOUTH
Facing Central Park

SEYMOUR DURST

LIVING ROOM furnished in the modern manner by W. & J. Sloane. This is but one of many modern rooms at Essex House...all of which are both beautiful and comfortable.

LIVING ROOM furnished in the 18th Century manner by B. Altman & Co. Seven prominent decorators were retained this season to create attractive, homelike accommodations.

A BEDROOM decorated and furnished by Elsie de Wolfe, who recently was commissioned by King Edward VIII to re-decorate Buckingham Palace.

Essex House New York

One of the largest and finest hotels in the Metropolis, Essex House is patronized by distinguished guests from the capitols of the World. Single room and bath from $5...Suites from $10.

160 CENTRAL PARK SOUTH

Facing Central Park

A KITCHENETTE (with automatic refrigeration and a 4-burner gas range) is standard equipment in every suite of two or more rooms and in many one-room apartments.

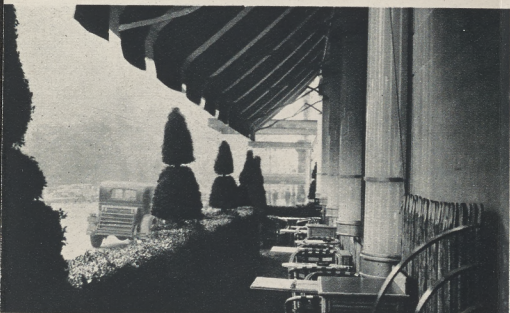

CENTRAL PARK in the front yard—843 acres of greensward, trees and foliage by day, and a myriad of twinkling lights at night. Windows also command views of the Hudson and East Rivers, New Jersey and Long Island.

THE LOBBY epitomises Essex House luxury which does not exceed the bounds of good taste. The lobby, high, wide and spacious, runs from street to street, terminates at entrances on Central Park South and 58th Street.

MIDTOWN MANHATTAN after dark, as seen from Essex House, looking south. In the foreground are the great midtown business, shopping and theatre districts. The tower on the right is the Empire State Building.

ESSEX PROMENADE RESTAURANT facing Central Park, New York's outdoor dining rendezvous from May to September, bounded by beautifully formed topiary boxwood—natural plants which match the greens of Central Park.

Essex House

160 CENTRAL PARK SOUTH

New York

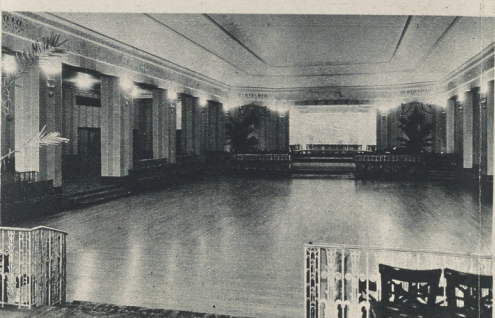

OSCAR WINTRAB, Managing Director

ESSEX CASINO-ON-THE-PARK—open air dining during summer months and behind sheets of plate glass in winter; always a view of Central Park, always air-conditioned. Nat Brandwynne and his Orchestra shown above.

FIFTH AVENUE looking south from 58th Street—the world-famous street of smart shops and great department stores. The Bergdorf Goodman establishment in right foreground is but a block and a half from Essex House.

THE COLONNADES, the grand ballroom at Essex House, newly decorated in coral and silver, seats 1000 at banquets, has ample space for convention exhibit booths, perfect acoustics, and a complete public address system.

THE QUEEN MARY, the world's largest and fastest liner, and other ships dock at mammoth New York City piers at the foot of 57th Street. The above photograph of the Queen Mary was taken from Essex House.

ESSEX HOUSE

New York

MIDTOWN MANHATTAN after dark, as seen from Essex House, looking south. In the foreground are the great midtown business, shopping and theatre districts. The tower on the right is the Empire State Building.

ESSEX CASINO-ON-THE-PARK—open air dining during summer months and behind sheets of plate glass in winter; always a view of Central Park, always air-conditioned. Nat Brandwynne and his Orchestra shown above.

THE QUEEN MARY, the world's largest and fastest liner, and other ships dock at mammoth New York City piers at the foot of 57th Street. The above photograph of the Queen Mary was taken from Essex House.

